Welcome to the AI Center

The AI Center for Civic and Social Good, located on the 1st floor of the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Library, provides free access to artificial intelligence (AI) education, tools, and advanced technology for San José residents, San José State students, faculty, and staff, small businesses, and entrepreneurs.

Created in partnership with the City of San José and San José State University, the AI Center empowers our community to explore, create, and apply AI in ways that advance civic engagement, workforce development, research, and responsible innovation. Whether you are new to AI or ready to build advanced projects, the Center offers opportunities for every skill level.

Using the AI Center

The AI Center is intentionally built with the technology you need to build your AI skills and create AI tools. Bring your own device or check out a laptop and start creating.

- Open Lab Hours: Open access for library members and SJSU students, staff, and faculty to explore AI resources and work on projects.
- Hands-on Workshops & AI Literacy: From introductory to advanced learning opportunities, free AI training sessions are available to help you expand your skills.
- Responsible AI Tools: Access AI tools for public service, academic, or community projects.
- Anyone with a valid SJSU Tower Card or an SJPL Library Card can use the center
- State-of-the art computers and AI software
- Collaborative workspaces for individuals and small groups during open lab hours
